

Which state environmental agency should I talk to about my project?

This document serves as a guide for applicants in understanding the state agency having jurisdiction on a proposed Environmental Resource Permit (ERP) application.

Is your project located within Suwannee River WMD boundaries?
 Confirm at: <http://flwaterpermits.com/agws10/fpperp1/>

Is your project located within the floodway of the following rivers? Suwannee, Santa Fe, Withlacoochee, Alapaha, or Aucilla Rivers
 Confirm at: www.srwmdfloodreport.com

YES NO

Check with the Water Management District (WMD) listed

YES NO

At your proposed project location, is there a previous ERP issued by SRWMD?
 Confirm at: <http://flwaterpermits.com/agws10/fpperp1/>

YES NO

At your proposed project location, is there a previous ERP issued by FDEP?
 Confirm at: <http://flwaterpermits.com/agws10/fpperp1/>

Does your project fall under any of the following activities?

- Projects within 50 feet of the Gulf of Mexico
- Navigational dredging*
- Aquaculture activities
- Boat ramps, ski jumps, buoys, fish attractors, artificial reefs, treasure salvage, removal of organic detrital material, etc.*
- Waste management facilities*
- Reclaimed water, water reuse, or potable water facilities
- Mines
- Utility facilities and lines including communications, electric, solar, gas, etc.
- Seaports and seaport related development
- Temporary systems for film productions

NO YES

NO YES

Is your project for single-family residential use proposed on 1 or 2 contiguous parcels of land under common ownership?

NO YES

Projects typically for commercial, governmental, subdivisions, commercial agriculture, silvicultural, institutional, etc...

Unless the activity is part of a larger plan of common development*

Suwannee River Water Management District (SRWMD)

Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP)

